Special Orders Welcome

FAB Host Decadence Open House Sun., Sept. 5

FAB welcomes Decadence 2009 with a Saturday, September 5, Open House 3-Way featuring posters from Larry Graham, SKYBLUEPINK memoir signing by Michael Sterling, surreal art from Justin Winter. Plus there is a store full of new, used, vintage books surrounded by original paintings, drawings, prints, and sculpture with an eclectic collection of ephemera, found art objects and classic vinyl records and New Orleans music CD's. FAB - Faubourg Marigny Art & Books is located at 600 Frenchmen Street at Chartres, just 8 short blocks from Jackson Square. Store hours are from noon till 10pm every day.

Larry Graham is New Orleans' own pictorial photographer. His Southern Decadence, Mardi Gras and New Orleans Icons Portrait Art Posters are treasures that collectors make a special effort to acquire. The Face of God series is a classic representation of his biblical tableau photographs recognized in 2006 as one of the top exhibits in the City.

Skybluepink is the story of Michael Sterling who "went from swamp kid to street person to hustler to humanitarian and his story is one you will want to read" according to an Amos Lassen review. "He writes with grace and honesty and his book is wonderfully smart and witty."

Justin Winter is an engaging artist with a very explicit style that will amuse and startle and stimulate reflection and discussion about current events. The art appearing on board cut-outs provides brief quips that offer a perspective worth viewing. Also included are oil on canvas paintings that defy description. You have to come see them in person.

FAB offers an exclusive showing of vintage gay bar posters, tapes and magazines, some more than 25 years old with special, discount pricing offers for purchases of multiple magazines and classic VHS tapes. The rare posters feature institutions such as Gauntlet II in Los Angeles, Jackhammer and Ambush in San Francisco, and Clementines in St. Louis. This special Decadence collection includes Mr. Leather posters from the 1980's by Etienne and posters by Tom of Finland. Original comic books illustrated by Tom of Finland are also available. You will find hundreds of vintage magazines such as Honcho, Zeus, Eagle, Drummer, Numbers, After Dark, Christopher Street, Mandate, Blueboy, and In Touch and more. A healthy supply of physique pictorial beefcake zines from the 60's and 70's and 80's are part of this Decadence showing.

FAB features New Orleans and Louisiana new and used fiction, nonfiction and coffee table photo and art books as well as new, used and signed GLBT novels and nonfiction—the most extensive GLBT book collection in the Gulf South. The highlight of your visit will include viewing the FAB nude art gallery featuring original paintings, drawings, photographs, and prints and posters as well as sculpture, all of which are available for purchase.

Celebrate Decadence 2009 with a walk on the 500 and 600 blocks of Frenchmen Street - Faubourg Marigny "in" spot where locals dine, drink and enjoy great music from the jazz and music clubs, restaurants and bars combined with a late night visit to FAB - Faubourg Marigny Art & Books, 600 Frenchmen Street, 504.947.3700, fabotis@yahoo.com.

And with the work load split between the bears and the Renegades, no one was overwhelmed with responsibilities. Keeping Bleather Weekend simple means those who throw this event can also enjoy it!

A big BLEATHER thank you to our participating bars: B-Bob's, Gabriel's, Visions' Twist & Midtown Pub... our host hotel, The Hampton Inn & Suites on Royal, and our clubs: The Gulf Coast Bear & Leather Association, The Southern Renegades and New Orleans' own Lords of Leather. Bob Brunson worked hard on the sets for our contests. Vince and the staff at Midtown Pub cooked up a great grill out Saturday afternoon, and David Peyton's incredible brunch and Sonia's Bloody Mary Bar made Sunday's farewell event at Vision's something a cut above!

Also, a big thank you to Jerry at B-Bob's for sharing his AMBUSH ads with Bleather Weekend Mobile. Visit the website often to keep up with our plans and events. There's MUCH more Bleather to come!
